

A search of the records of the Pocahontas Times shows that the first issue of this paper was published on the 1st day of January, 1903. It was then published by the Pocahontas Times Building, W. Va., on second class matter.

When the first issue of the Pocahontas Times was published, it was a small paper, but it has since grown to be one of the largest and most influential papers in the State of West Virginia.

It is to be hoped that the Pocahontas Times will continue to be a source of information and inspiration to the people of West Virginia for many years to come.

The Pocahontas Times is a paper that is read by everyone in the community. It is a paper that is full of news, interest, and information. It is a paper that is a source of pride for the people of West Virginia.

reading a newspaper for the first time. It is a new thing to the people of the Pocahontas, and it is a new thing to the people of the Pocahontas.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shot by a tramp named John Brown, in the city of New York. The tramp was shot and killed by the police. The tramp was shot and killed by the police.

We can all remember as well as if it were yesterday that Alton B. Parker, when he was the nominee for President, in 1904, made a famous charge against Roosevelt.

One of the strange things that happened in the history of the United States was the election of Theodore Roosevelt as President. It was a strange thing that happened in the history of the United States.

ground, they all went for this, except a few who chose away from the rest. On the 25th day of March, 1913, old Doctor Wilson went to Washington and took the oath of office as President of the United States.

These are peculiar times in the Republican party. After many years of the practical politics of the party, it is now a party of theory and of the two wings of the party.

No word has yet been heard in this county that the name of the highly desirable bird, known as the grouse, is to be introduced. In the old days it was not so.

Not that old Doctor Wilson needs any recommendation at our hands, but in answer to a challenge in the Independent, we will write a few lines on the gentleman. He was born in Staunton, Virginia, but this is not held against him.

and after the election he remained perfectly every promise he had made, and he went right along with his work. He seemed to have had no mental reservations whatsoever and he made good. Then he said that the tariff must be revised by a new, more, and steady movement downwards, and the Democratic party should be a good one to maintain for practical.

A contemporary has the following letter written by Johnny's mother to the teacher: "Dear teacher: You keep telling my boy to break with his friends. Maybe rich children has got dis friends, but how about when a father only makes $1.00 a week and has got five children to keep? First he has to buy food and clothes, and then he has to buy school books. That's the worst part."

We want to distinctly understand that the Democratic party is not responsible for the disfranchisement of the colored people. It is the law requiring us to buy new school books for the children this fall just before the tax tickets fell due. The law requiring the change was passed in the year 1905, the same legislature that took away the common law right of the common people to hunt on the unenclosed lands of the State.

It is a pity that the grouse is so scarce in this county. It is a pity that the grouse is so scarce in this county. It is a pity that the grouse is so scarce in this county.

Half the Regular Fuel Supply Required

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater, on account of the patented air-tight and gas-tight construction and patented hot blast combustion, gives perfect control over the fire.

Build Only One Fire a Winter

It is so perfect in construction that fire keeps all night—It saves the gases wasted with other stoves.

The cost of the stove is saved in fuel. $5.00 worth of soft coal, hard coal or lignite, or a $1.50 ton of slack or screenings will do the work of twice the amount of fuel in other stoves.

It is guaranteed to remain always air-tight, which means that it is always a fire-keeper. Examine Cole's Original Hot Blast before you buy—Avoid imitations which only look like the genuine.

State Tax Commissioner.

THE ART EXHIBIT

There was a time when beautiful things were accessible only to the rich. Today they are possible to all. The free museum of the State Tax Commission is a place where the poor can see the best of the world's art.

The exhibit is composed of two hundred pictures, varying in size from ten inches to six feet, each of which is a copy of a work of art.

HON. J. A. McLAUGHLIN
For House of Representatives.

their beautiful perfection of the detail of Moorish architecture.

Teachers will be sure to take an interest in this exhibit since it is in itself an addition to their general culture; since it recalls half forgotten pictures; since they realize that they themselves must know the world's masterpieces if they are to instill a knowledge of art and love for them among the children in their schools; since they know all too well how many in their profession are totally ignorant of the world's beautiful pictures.

School Boards and District officers in this part of the county, each and all will approve of this exhibit. Many of the trustees will be glad to see the pictures for themselves. Still others will want to see them so as to see what pictures are really fit for a school room, for some doubtless will spend out of their school fund, one dollar, two dollars or may be five dollars for one or more pictures for the home school. If "Sir Galahad" or "Baby Stuart," or Landover's Newfoundland, or any of the other pictures, are to be placed in the front wall of every school in the district, only God knows how much better and kinder would be the home of our boys and girls.

Young folks who have never had a chance of much schooling would want to see these pictures for it will be a short course in history and art for them. Those who have had a college education will gladly look at these pictures to recall what they once knew so well and to enable them to talk as guides at one of our museums, Hoffman and Bagnall.

Those who have visited the famous art galleries of this country or those abroad will want to see these creditable of the wonderful originals just to refresh the dimming remembrance. Those who have never visited these art galleries and who probably never will, will of a certainty see these pictures and catch glimpses of the world's treasures.

Those who are needing pictures for their homes will find this an unusual opportunity to select for their homes a large source to select from and see what exactly what they will get. Age—30 who are just married or about to be married will find this the place to buy their first pictures. People believe that the one good picture costing two dollars is as good as one costing twenty-five.

This means that the Hon. K. Turner exhibit is so good that you will all want, every year, to see it. Get your quarters, work and help your own school get pictures for your own children to see.

Every Farmer in West Virginia Should Support W. D. Shaw for Commissioner of Agriculture.

He is the best qualified man in the State for the office. He is not merely theoretical but practical. He shows not only by his words but by his works. An observation of his methods and achievements on his home farm will convince the most skeptical.

Born with an instinct for farming and a conscientious desire to follow the possibilities of the business, the whole of his intensely practical life, to this date, has been a continual progression towards better methods. Along this line of progress he has devoted himself to the education of his fellow farmers.

His years of untiring labor in the promotion of farmer's institutes, his public and private appeals for better farming are easily remembered by us all. The State has thereby been greatly benefited for much of the wide-spread advance to farming methods is directly traceable to his teaching and example.

The man who makes two blades grow where only one grew before is a public benefactor; for he leads others to do the same. This is all that is anticipated; but another evidence that "virtue is its own reward," to the man who is himself, he has attained a national reputation; and himself is a blessing as a teacher in the increasing demand in many other States. That he has stood the test before so many different people, and in some of the oldest and richest and best developed States, and that his services are in more and more demand proves his fitness for the work and for the office to which he is aspirant.

Moreover, he with a few others originated the Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Company of West Virginia, in which company much farm property of the State is insured and he has thereby saved and is saving to the farmers of this State many thousands of dollars every year.

As unknown man, however good, would require a whole term of office to gain the confidence of the people, the confidence of the farmers and agricultural community of this and many other States. He would begin his term of office with a preparation that the other could not have till the close of his term.

In a non-political position, like that of a school teacher, for instance, the man who is not a politician would not be able to supply the necessary conditions for a teacher.

the uneducated and inexperienced person. The same rule should apply in the selection and election of a Commissioner of Agriculture.

Many republican farmers throughout the State have said to Mr. Zinn in substance, "we want you in this office; and if you will secure the nomination from your party, we will vote for you." He has performed his part of the contract, and has an abiding faith that the others will fulfill theirs when the time comes. Why should not republican farmers as well as men of other callings, who have not promised the same way?

He is our fellow citizen; and his election because of his ability and progressiveness in his sphere will reflect a distinguished honor upon this State; and his services to the farmers will be to the administration of which he is a part its strong tower.

Let us as farmers, therefore, show that we are not mere hay-seeders, but that we vote in our own interest.

Very respectfully,
D. W. SHAW.
(Mr. Shaw was for years superintendent of the State Reform School, and afterward president of Morris Harvey College. He is now farming.—Editor.)

CONCERNING THE CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP

To the Pocahontas Times:

The modern trend has been to take the judiciary out of politics. This is true not only in our own State of West Virginia, but generally throughout the entire United States. A notable recent illustration is cited to mind when it is remembered that upon the death of the late venerable Chief Justice Fuller, of the Supreme Court of the United States, the President appointed to that exalted position one of the Associate Justices, who was of a different political faith from himself.

The President, however, selected one, and there were nothing but words of commendation for the President for his wise selection. In many of the states judges are selected in a manner that absolutely removes them from any connection with any political party; and it is now an unusual thing to read in the daily newspapers where a certain candidate for judicial honors had been endorsed and elected, or appointed without regard to his previous political faith or affiliation. It is earnestly submitted that this is as it should be.

Let us be practical, therefore, and apply the rule to the local conditions prevailing in the new Twentieth Judicial District. In the election of 1904, as a result of this mixture of the judiciary with partisan politics, there was thrust upon the people of Greenbrier and Pocahontas Counties as their judge a man who, according to the now universal opinion, combined in himself almost all the vices of which the human mind could conceive. He was ignorant and dishonest, intemperate and licentious, lazy and tyrannical; and all of these and more, so much so that finally in desperation the legislature of 1911 was appealed to and prevailed upon to create the new (present) Twentieth Circuit, composed of the two Counties of Greenbrier and Pocahontas. It devolved upon the Governor to appoint the judge who was to sit upon the bench in the new circuit, and in compliance with that official duty, Mr. Charles S. Dice was named, and as time has proved, there was not a lawyer in either of the counties who was to give greater satisfaction to the people generally. Judge Dice is a lawyer of recognized ability, is a Christian gentleman of a genial nature and kindly disposition; is courteous alike to members of the bar and litigants, while at the same time presiding at the Court with a firmness and dignity that is both pleasant and refreshing. He conducts the business of the Court with all reasonable dispatch, yet having due regard for the importance of the matter that is before him and giving to it that judicial attention to which it is entitled. And most of all, no one can say that he plays politics while in the discharge of his official work. Since he has been upon the bench there has been no word of complaint or criticism of him that we have heard of from any source whatever. It is the universal verdict that he is making an excellent judge. Why then, in all fairness, make a change in the coming election! Against the gentleman who is opposing Judge Dice are no serious pretensions. The argument is, that as he has a satisfactory record and is a lawyer of the primary eminence was held, a prominent and brilliant lawyer from another part of the State, an active Democrat in politics, knowing of the satisfaction which Judge Dice was giving in the fulfillment of the duties pertaining to his office, and being familiar with the conditions which had prevailed in those parts, made this observation: "Make no mistake, from a consideration of what the political parties may do, if Judge Dice should be a candidate at this coming election, he would be elected, and as a result, the State would be a better place than it is now."

It is scarcely to be hoped, therefore, in conclusion, that when the vote is cast, Judge Dice will be elected. He will take off his hat and say, "Good morning, Mr. Wilson, you got it sooner than I expected."

Well, the world moves and on does George Hoover. He has moved back in our neighborhood. What is Hoover's loss is our gain. Tilden Bryant has moved to Clarksburg. Moss Garrett has moved to McClellan's.

Mr. Dixon is moving to Frost. Mrs. Gertrude Goss is visiting in town.

Win McElwain has bought a fine team. He is going to build the roller mill and it will be run by electricity. This will be a fine thing for our town to have light, besides the great benefit to our farmers to have a mill. More grain will be raised.

Judge Dice, S. H. Sharp, Ray Goodell and Capt. Swicker made a flying trip last week to the upper end of the county in the Judge's automobile. The Judge is up this week and will attend the Freeman sale. The Judge has many friends up this way.

Capt. C. B. Swicker sold to Dr. J. E. Erwin in Missouri, a very handsome family monument to be erected at the old Erwin graveyard in Highland county. We like to see that old graveyard fixed up. It shows respect to the county.

MRS. GOLDIE GATEWOOD

Mrs. Goldie Yeager Gatewood, wife of William B. Gatewood, died at the home of her parents, Sunday morning, October 20, 1912, after an illness of four months duration, in her 51st year. On Monday the funeral service was conducted from the M. E. Church, South, by her pastor, the Rev. J. H. Bean. Interment in the Marlinton cemetery. The pall bearers were T. C. Anderson, E. M. Arbaugh, T. S. McNeil, F. M. Sydnor, Dr. E. B. Hill, and A. D. Williams.

The deceased was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Yeager. She had her home here from early childhood, and her death distressed a large circle of attached friends.

Georgia, aged 12 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Varner, of Elk, died of appendicitis in a Baltimore hospital, Tuesday. She was brought back yesterday and will be buried in the family graveyard on Elk, today. Our sympathies are extended.

Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, of Greensburg, spoke at the Opera House Thursday, October 17th, to a very appreciative audience. Report of the Little Lewis district Institute. The Little Lewis district has the most enthusiastic body of teachers it has ever had. This fact was shown by the district Institute which was held October 18, 1912. All the old teachers agreed that there had never been a more interesting Institute held in this district. There were twenty-eight teachers present, and each did his or her best to make the Institute a success. The program consisted of eight of the best problems which confront every teacher. These problems were thoroughly discussed by the teachers to whom they were assigned. There was no lack of topics when these problems were opened for general discussion. Every one part of away some information of real value. It was unanimously agreed that the Institute should have a yearly or biennial session. These teachers should be given the opportunity to organize the conference of the Little Lewis district.

FROM MR. STRICKLER

Editor Times.—Recently I received from your friend in Pocahontas a marked copy of the Times of October 15, in which appears an editorial, referring to me in connection with the editorial published Mr. McLaughlin, among other other things you say: "His mother was a Woodhall from this county. You are in error about that; my mother was Elizabeth M. Gilmore, daughter of Alex Gilmore, of Buck Creek, in Highland Co., Va. I was born in Monterey, Va. I am not complaining, only calling your attention to the fact I have no grievance, if the Woodhalls will 'stand for it.' Neither am I at the head of the Masonic fraternity in W. Va. I am a 32nd degree, 'have on' all except one. But officially, so far as the grand lodge is concerned, I am only a private. It was nine what you said, but it occurred to me that possibly you was elevating me a little too much, that I was getting a 'rep' to which I was not entitled. My brother was recently grand master of W. Va., and possibly that is where the confusion comes in as to position. Please excuse me for 'bustling in' when I have no complaint, but I think it proper to enter 'a disclaimer for fear a question of title might arise.' I hope to see Mr. McLaughlin re-elected, he was a faithful and industrious member reflecting credit upon his constituents; he was the patron of the cocaine bill as well as the bill fixing the time for commencement of the assessment year. I heard Gov. Wilson today deliver a splendid speech at Clarksburg to a large audience, notwithstanding the rain and the mud. There was no mud in his speech either.

WILL A. STRICKLER.

LOURY FOR OFFICE DEPUTY

John Waugh has made arrangements whereby Joe C. Loury will be his office deputy in case he is elected assessor of Pocahontas county. Mr. Loury is particularly well equipped for this office and would do the work carefully and conscientiously. With Mr. Waugh and his deputies, E. A. Hudson and L. A. Shuler, to do the field work and Mr. Loury to take care of the clerical work in the office, the assessment of property in Pocahontas could be defended upon to be right.

Hon. W. D. Zinn, of Barbour county addressed a small audience at the opera house Monday night. He is on the Democratic ticket for Commissioner of Agriculture, and this State or any other state has a better man for the place. He is well known to Pocahontas farmers, held institutes here, and is a regular contributor to the leading farm papers. When here Mr. Zinn met his old school friend Geo. W. McCollum, whom he had not seen in 26 years.

Ralph Johnson the 13-year-old son of Paris Johnson, of Marlinton, W. Va., struck hard luck in Harrisonburg this week. The lad was in care of a West Virginia man, who drank too much booze this week, got put out of a local hotel, had most of his luggage stolen, was forced to sell his horse and buggy for ten or twelve dollars, and became down and out generally. The little Johnson boy has gone to Lilly to visit friends and will be taken back to his West Virginia home soon.—Harrisonburg News, (October 12.)

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet on the second Tuesday in November instead of the first, as heretofore. Mrs. W. J. Yeager will be hostess on this occasion.

The ladies of the Home Mission Society of the Methodist Church, will hold a bazaar, and serve a turkey and oyster dinner and supper in the Kedge Building, Thursday, October 24th. Everybody invited.

HATFIELD SPEAKS

Dr. H. D. Hatfield, Republican, Bull Moose candidate for Governor, and A. A. Lilly, candidate for Attorney General, spoke at the opera house Monday evening. The leaders of their respective parties in the effort to win office of state, and expressions of sympathy for Colonel McGraw for the perfectly irreparable was treated by the legislature of 1911 in the matter of choosing a United States Senator.

Mr. Lilly expressed confidence in the ability of "Old Abe Lilly" to handle the Virginia Debt business if he was elected Attorney General. He is a rather fluent speaker and told a story illustrating the unusual conditions in the domestic affairs of the Republican party in this State this year. It seems a man and a woman were married, each of who had children by former marriages. As time went on other children were added to the combined families. One day a relative was heard going on among the children. The mother rushed to the door and called to the father: "Bill, Bill, come here quick; your children and my children are linking the devil out of our children."

Doctor Hatfield is not especially gifted as a speaker, and failed to be convincing in the matters he chose to discuss. He largely confined his remarks to the injury inflicted on McGraw by the Democrats and the villainy of a certain disfranchising act, alleged to have been attempted by the Democratic legislature of 1911. Most of his hearers seemed bored at this, as he had been attempted along this line. The recital of Colonel McGraw's defeat brought forth faint cheers of sympathy. Doctor Hatfield agreed with Mr. Lilly that all the real talent for transacting public business is at present incorporated among the Republican candidates and politicians. And all corporation lawyers this year are running on the Democratic ticket.

Regaining control of the legislature seems to be an important feature in the program, and the speaker urged support especially for the local Republican candidate.

Neither of the speakers talked of a single issue that is engaging popular attention this year, except to express confidence in the sublime and sacred principle of protection to infant industries, and maintenance of American standard of wages, which does not exist for the man who works at common labor in this country is already brought in contact with cheap foreign labor.

A case of more than usual interest was tried at the last term of the circuit court, of Fred Starky vs the Brushy Run Lumber Company. The plaintiff sued for seventy dollars wages. He was employed by McCray Brothers, contractors working on the lands of the Brushy Run Lumber Company and delivered logs to the mill of that company. The plaintiff claimed that the company was liable for his wages, and the defendant that he would have to look to McCray Brothers, who were in a bad financial condition. The jury found for the plaintiff the full amount of his claim. Upwards of a hundred accounts are in the same condition, McCray Brothers failure having thrown a great many laboring men in a bad fix. The attorneys moved the court to set the verdict aside and in view of the fact that a number of intricate points of law are involved and that a large number of cases are in a measure dependent upon this one trial, the court took time to consider and has not yet passed upon the point, the attorneys for the defendant asking leave to have time to prepare and file written briefs.

How You Can Help the School

During the time of the exhibition of the Turner Art Exhibit at the Marlinton school building, October 21, to November 1st inclusive, we earnestly solicit your help in the following manner:

1. By the attendance of our citizens, thereby creating a fund to be expended for the school room.
2. By making a subscription of whatever amount you may feel disposed to give toward the school fund. For every dollar thus subscribed we are entitled to $1.50 per cent additional.
3. By giving orders for pictures for your own home. On such orders we are allowed 25 per cent additional.
4. By individual, family, firm, or company's order, or by making the school a donation of a picture or pictures selected by themselves. These pictures ordered through us, and they are of the very best, give us 10 per cent additional.
5. Look, look, look, by having your friends of the opportunity of seeing the finest collection of art ever gathered together in this country.

We shall try to make each day of the exhibition a social pleasure. We believe the people of Marlinton and vicinity are representative of a great thing in any other. Will you do as well as others have done? We will greatly appreciate your help. Come and see the show. Bring that ever ready hand.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Held at New Hope church, Minersville, Saturday, October 1, 1912.

Had not been surpassed in interest and enthusiasm by any previously held.

No more attractive setting for a Sunday School Convention should have been found than was afforded by Minersville.

With its attractive convenient location and the wide awake people, the large attendance from the local and visiting schools.

The cordial reception to the delegates and visitors, and the uniform courtesy extended by an attentive and capable president, E. Lee White, proved an inspiration to all.

The President's work throughout was marked by a high order of efficiency. Rev. George F. Myers brought many words from the Westminster Convention, which will remain in our work throughout the year.

His heart is with the Sunday school. He is with the Sunday school. He is with the Sunday school.

Plants May Be Kept Throughout The Winter

Throughout severe weather you can keep your house plants by using Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater.

This heater maintains a steady even temperature day and night. It will hold fire and heat over night and you can heat your living rooms for two hours next morning with the coal put in the night before.

WHY CRIMMINS IS FOR WILSON

Philanthropist Calls Taft and Roosevelt Protectors of Trusts. TIME RIFE FOR CHANGE.

Never has been denied to the masses. We cannot expect remedies from men high in office who in their entire life work have been associated and participated with the favored class.

Free From Evil Associations. In Mr. Wilson and his associates, the candidate for this position, we have two men who have had no connection with the privileged class...

By JOHN D. CRIMMINS, (Noted Philanthropist and Irish American Leader).

At the instant of an important election to the approaching winter for president and vice president we must view what has caused the great uprising in the country in connection with our economic affairs and the administration of our government in so far as it relates to that uprising.

There is to be delivered a message to the executive privilege created by the tariff preference through the Republican party and the forces in the privileged classes and corporations. While wealth has accumulated under these preferences, a fair field and an equal chance has been denied to the masses.

Some Words You Don't Know

What is the use of using slang words to express your meaning in a more picturesque fashion than your neighbor when the dictionary is full of words that are common and yet more correct?

There are a few perfectly good words to be found in any common dictionary of the English language. But don't you go to the dictionary for these—yes, don't if you can figure out their meaning. Then, when you have looked them up, spring them on the next fellow. He will either thank you as a lightener or else admire you as the bearer of a new language, though you are neither.
